

ShieldAI Privacy & Ownership Whitepaper

This document details the cryptographic verification, ownership certification, and privacy-first local steganography model used to protect digital content.

All processing occurs client-side in the browser using SHA-256 local hashing and metadata injection before network publication.